

FRT + Eagle: Shareholder Class Action and Global Litigation Monitoring, Filing, and Recovery Services

“The class action landscape has evolved. Manage the new complexities and recover full value for your claims with an innovative, end-to-end technology solution.”

ABOUT FRT

Financial Recovery Technologies is singularly focused on providing investors with solutions that address the growing complexities of the securities class action landscape. Putting it simply, they make sure their clients understand what’s going on with securities litigation and how to make sure they maximize their recoveries to better monitoring, filing, and recovery practices.

Over its ten years in business, FRT has grown to become the leading shareholder class action monitoring and recovery provider. Learn more at frtservices.com.

Automated class action monitoring and recovery capabilities.

The world of class actions has evolved dramatically over the last five years. It has required investors to respond with upgraded governance, controls, and protocols. It has required corporations to improve their own governance and transparency. Consequently, new demands for complex, multi-source class action data are falling on investment managers—whose resources are in all likelihood already stretched thin.

Now, the expertise of two of the world’s leading financial technology firms—Financial Recovery Technologies and Eagle Investment Systems—brings automation to the traditionally time-intensive process of shareholder class action claims filing.

With the FRT + Eagle solution, investment managers can automate the effective identification, filing and recovery of securities class action settlements on behalf of their clients—mitigating risk and delivering enhanced client service.

THE EAGLE + FRT SOLUTION DELIVERS:

- Automated class action claim filing and recovery. Experience improved speed, accuracy, and results while mitigating risk.
- Reduced workload around data retrieval, data loading and data analysis. Easily access the transaction histories needed to proactively monitor, identify eligibility, and file.
- Visibility and an audit trail. Receive frequent, detailed status reporting throughout the class action life cycle on all eligibility, claims filing, and recovery activity including payment reconciliation.
- Deep industry, domain and jurisdictional expertise. In-house legal and research resources are dedicated to understanding the complexities and nuances of settled class actions, global litigation, antitrust, and direct class action needs.
- Peace of mind. Comprehensive, multi-source class action and settlement information ensures your firm seizes every class action recovery opportunity.
- Actionable insights. Understand the potential value of each of your firm’s claims.
- Access to FRT’s industry-leading client portal: View comprehensive information on every case and claim your firm may be eligible for.

SUPPORTING YOUR INVESTMENT IN EAGLE

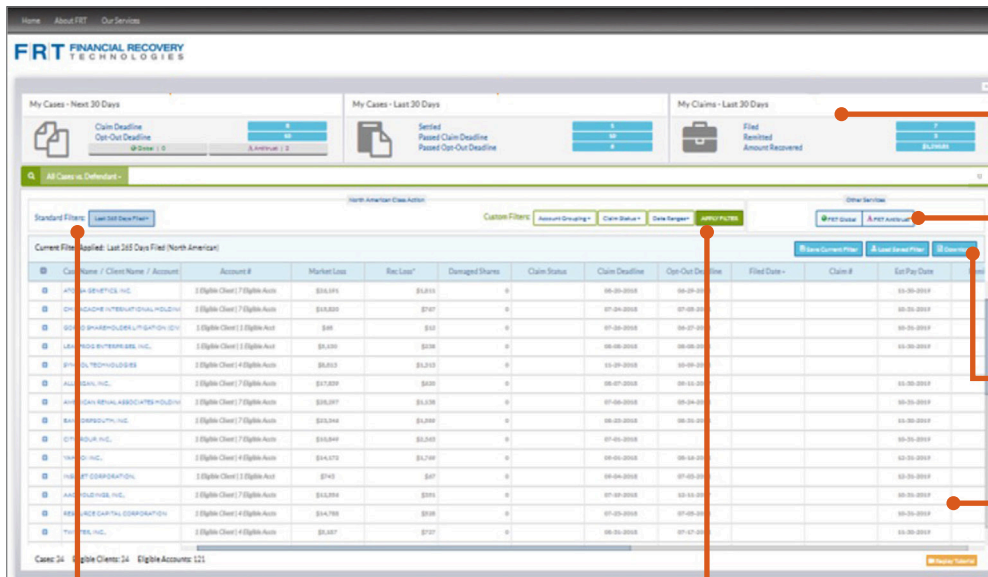

Your firm benefits from the Eagle and FRT alliance through the continued collaboration and investment that both firms make in simplifying the implementation, workflow, and ongoing support of the solution.

Apply an automated, end-to-end solution to your class action claims process.

Always have full visibility into your firm's class action eligibility, filing and recovery status.

The dashboard gives you a quick look into what has happened in your eligible cases and claims within the past 30 days and what to be aware of in the next 30 days.

The Case Search Bar allows you to look up information about any U.S., Antitrust or Global case in our database. Start typing the name of the case or defendant and results matching your entry will appear.

Download whatever data is currently being returned in the grid into a CSV file by selecting the Download button.

The data grid displays information about cases and claims as they stand today. You can expand the Case Row to show your eligible accounts for that case.

Select from a dropdown of Standard Filters that return information most frequently asked for including upcoming deadlines, recent settlements, filing and remittance activity, and all cases with eligible accounts.

Define your own Custom Filters for specific queries based on eligibility of certain accounts, return claims of a given status, and even specify date ranges for when something has settled, been filed, or remitted.
